

Jim, his wife Kim and their two children live within the family farm network, which includes a Century Farm, north of Odessa. He is the fifth generation to live in the area and maintain the farming lifestyle.

He has served on the Cemeteries Committee and Police Services Board for the last 7 years and was Chair of the Cemeteries committee before being elected to Council in 2010.

He is also actively involved in the Wilton Standard-Wesleyan Church and Bethel Camp. His children attended Odessa Public School and Ernestown Secondary. They participated in sports both within the school and throughout the community.

Jim has worked for engineering consultants, contractors, a municipality as the Public Works Manager, and is currently with the Ministry of Transportation.

Jim is looking forward to the opportunity to represent all wards in Loyalist Township.
