

MAYOR BILL LOWRY

Bill, his wife Heather, have made Amherstview their home for the past 24 years. His family has enjoyed the quality of life this community has to offer.

They have volunteered their time to many charitable fundraising campaigns within the local community, including being actively involved with minor hockey, ball, soccer and also men's hockey as participants and organizers.

Bill is presently serving his eighth year on Council and has represented the residents by serving on various committees such as Dog Control, Culture & Recreation, Community Policing and Cemeteries. Bill is also now representing the community as a Councillor of the County of Lennox and Addington. This is his second year on the Public Board of Health and Social Services.

For 36 years Bill was an employee with Hydro One. He is now retired and enjoying retirement life to its fullest.

Bill is a dedicated working individual who will best represent your interests as a Loyalist Township resident. His incredible people skills are displayed in his genuine desire to listen and try to truly help his constituents. Together with Council he will be committed to preserving our past with pride, enhancing our present assets and prepare for future opportunity in growth and development.
