

John was first elected as a Councillor for Ward 3 (Ernestown Ward) in 2000 and since that time has served on many Township committees, including Cemeteries, Recreation and Property, Heritage as well as representing the Township on the Loyalist Parkway Association, Kingston and District Taxi Commission and the Eastern Ontario Water Association. John has also served on many ad-hoc committees, as appointed by Council.

John is now in his fourth term on Council and has been appointed to the Heritage Committee, is the Township's representative on the Eastern Ontario Water Association and the County Council Alternate, whenever the Mayor or Deputy Mayor are absent.

John and his wife Pat have lived at their present address since 1967 when with children, Bryce and Dawn, they were starting a life in Amherstview. Before being elected to Council, John served nineteen years on the Lennox and Addington Board of Education, and was active in ball and hockey, both as a player and coach.

Having retired from the Ministry of Transportation of Ontario after a thirty five year career, John now devotes his time to Council and his golf game as well as a little travel.
