

NOMINATION INFORMATION

Eligibility for Induction:

- Athletes, builders, teams and volunteers of sport and athletics having a direct connection with Loyalist Township are eligible for consideration. Inductees are not limited to residency inside the borders of Loyalist Township.
- Builders and volunteers may be nominated at any time, even though the nominee is still active in the role for which he/she is nominated and should have twenty or more years of continuous active participation in the area.
- Athletes and teams must have reached a provincial championship level or achieved national and/or international recognition.
- Nominations must be in writing explaining, in detail, the reasons, rational and specific accomplishments of the individual or team. This material should include dates, locations and associations involved.
- Each submission will require additional, independent, supporting letters (minimum 3), to be considered for induction.
- The committee shall have the option of limiting the number of inductees each year.
- Selection will depend on the individual accomplishments in relation to the criteria and not on a comparison with other inductees or candidates past or present.
- Submissions will be retained, on file, for five years following the initial receipt and reviewed annually
- All meetings involving the selection of inductees will be held in camera. Only the successful candidates will be announced. No discussion or publication of the candidates, successful or unsuccessful, will follow the announcement of the inductees.
- Exceptions may be allowed with unanimous approval of the committee.
- Incomplete or incorrect information may make the nomination ineligible.
